07:00 Depart Bangkok for Ayutthaya, the former capital of Thailand. Visit Wat Phu Khao Thong, originally built in 1387 by the second king of the Ayutthaya Kingdom. Later, in 1569, the Burmese king constructed a Mon-style chedi on top of the original structure to commemorate his victory over Ayutthaya.

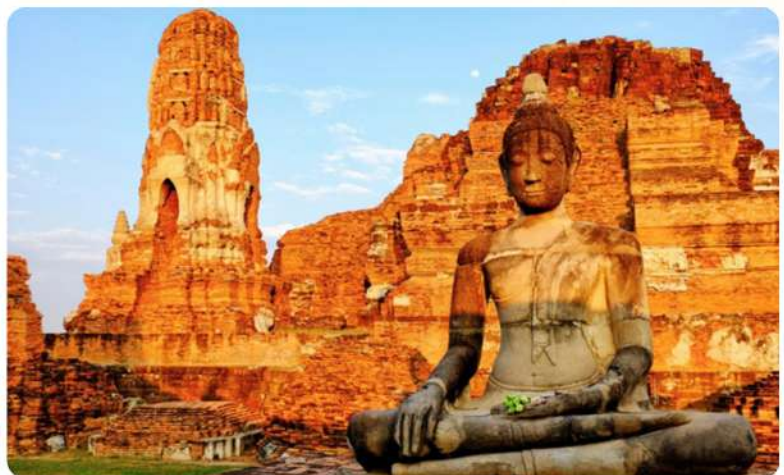

Continue to Ayutthaya Historical Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Explore the ancient royal palace grounds and visit Wat Phra Sri Sanphet, once the most important royal temple of the Ayutthaya period, located beside the Grand Palace.

Adjacent is Viharn Phra Mongkol Bophit, housing one of Thailand's largest seated bronze Buddha images in a beautifully restored assembly hall.

Enjoy a Thai buffet lunch at a local restaurant.

After lunch, visit Wat Lokaya Sutha, home to Ayutthaya's largest reclining Buddha (8 m high and 42 m long), constructed of brick and covered with plaster.

Continue to Wat Mahathat, one of Ayutthaya's most iconic temple ruins, famous for the Buddha head entwined within tree roots.
